Event: Awareness Programme on Child Marriage and Child Abuse Prevention
Theme: No Child Marriage, No Child Abuse.
Date: 09th November 2026
Venue: Auditorium, Government Degree College Uri
Organized by: Tehsil Legal Services, Uri in collaboration with the NSS Unit I and II and Women's Development Cell DGC Uri

An important programme was organised by Tehsil Legal Services, Uri, in collaboration with the NSS Unit I and II and Women's Development Cell, Government Degree College Uri, with the objective of creating awareness about the prevention of child marriage and child abuse and promoting the rights, safety and dignity of children.

The programme was conducted under the esteemed guidance of the Worthy Principal, Prof. Abdul Majeed Chalkoo and under the close supervision of Dr. Zahid Maqbool and Dr Imtiyaz Ahmad Rather (NSS Program Officers) and Dr. Kounsar Jabeen (Academic Arrangement, Education). The event was graced by members of legal fraternity- Advocate Shameem Chalkoo, Advocate Shabir Ahmad, Advocate Maroof Choudhary, Advocate Aalia Farooq, Advocate Najmul Sabha. Besides, faculty members, Non-Teaching Staff, and Local Fund Employees (LFEs), students from various semesters and NSS volunteers actively participated in the activity.

The programme focused on highlighting the serious social, psychological, educational and legal consequences of child marriage and different forms of child abuse. The initiative also aimed to sensitise participants about the significance of safeguarding childhood, ensuring access to education and creating a safe and supportive environment for the overall development of children.

The programme highlighted the importance of legal awareness and collective responsibility in addressing these social challenges. It provided an opportunity to underline the role of educational institutions, families, communities and legal authorities in identifying and preventing cases of child marriage and child abuse.

The initiative was significant in strengthening the college's commitment towards social responsibility, gender sensitisation, child rights and community awareness. The collaboration between Tehsil Legal Services Uri, the NSS Units and Women's Development Cell of the college reflected the importance of institutional cooperation in addressing pressing social issues through awareness and education.

The programme concluded with a renewed commitment to work towards a society where every child enjoys the right to safety, dignity, education and a healthy childhood, free from child marriage and abuse.
