Event: Participation in One Day Girls' Symposium
Theme: Role of Kashmiri Women in National Integration
Date: 10th November 2026
Venue: College Auditorium, Government Degree College Sopore

A One-Day Girls' Symposium on the theme "Role of Kashmiri Women in National Integration" was organised at Government Degree College, Sopore, on 10th November 2026. The symposium aimed to provide a platform for young female students to express their views on the significant role played by Kashmiri women in promoting national integration, communal harmony, social cohesion and nation-building.

In response to the programme, Government Degree College Uri deputed its student representative namely Ms Iqra Shafiq D/o Shafiq Ahamd Mir Semester 3rd bearing Roll No 25109 to participate in the symposium. The event provided an opportunity for students from different colleges to showcase their knowledge, communication skills, confidence and understanding of the contribution of women towards strengthening national unity and integration.

A proud moment for Government Degree College Uri was that the deputed student Ms Iqra Shafiq secured Third Position in the symposium, bringing recognition and appreciation to the institution. This achievement reflects the student's hard work, confidence and effective presentation skills.

The participation of the college in this event provided valuable exposure to the student and encouraged greater involvement in academic, intellectual and co-curricular activities. Such initiatives play an important role in developing leadership qualities, public speaking abilities and awareness among young women regarding their role in society and nation-building.

The college appreciates the achievement of the student and congratulates her on securing the Third Position. The institution also acknowledges the efforts of all those involved in facilitating her participation in the event.
