Event: Participation of students in Viksit Bharat Youth Parliament (VBYP) 2026-27 at District level
Date: 3rd November 2026
Venue: Government Degree College Boys Baramulla
Organized by: MY Bharat Baramulla, Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India.

In compliance with the communication received from the Office of the Deputy Commissioner, Baramulla, regarding the nomination and registration of students for participation in the Viksit Bharat Youth Parliament (VBYP) 2026–27 vide No: DCB/PS/MYB/6179-82 Dated: 24-10-2026, Government Degree College Uri deputed 16 students to participate in the district-level inter-district speech competition organised by MY Bharat Baramulla, Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India.

The programme was organised on 3rd November 2026 at Government Degree College Boys Baramulla with the objective of providing young students an opportunity to express their views on matters of national importance, democratic values, constitutional principles, youth participation and the vision of Viksit Bharat.

The college actively participated in the event by sending a contingent of 16 students, who enthusiastically represented the institution and demonstrated their public-speaking abilities, confidence, awareness and understanding of contemporary national issues.

The participation proved particularly rewarding for the college as one of its students namely Mr Syed Nafeez Gillani student of 3rd Semester secured First Position in the competition, bringing laurels to the institution. This achievement reflects the students' dedication, intellectual capabilities and commitment to active participation in democratic and nation-building processes.

The college appreciates the efforts of all the participating students and congratulates the position holder on this remarkable accomplishment. Such initiatives provide valuable platforms for nurturing leadership qualities, critical thinking, communication skills and responsible citizenship among young people.

The institution remains committed to encouraging students to participate in such educational and co-curricular activities that promote democratic awareness, leadership and the spirit of nation-building.
